Market View: Unanimous Conviction

The BUY rating reflects unanimous conviction among our constituent providers following a standout Q1. Exceptional results, an improving Net Revenue Retention rate, and tangible monetization from the Snowflake Intelligence Layer have solidified the bull case. The consensus view is that Snowflake has established itself as a durable, high-growth leader in the AI infrastructure landscape. The conversation on the Street has now fully shifted from "if" AI will be a tailwind to "how large" the tailwind will be, with significant focus on the long-term potential of products like Snowflake Agents to redefine enterprise automation.
